

hoover.org

George Marotta

1–2 minutes

About

George Marotta was a research fellow at the Hoover Institution pursuing research on international finance, especially global stock markets. He joined the Hoover Institution in 1975 after twenty-six years of foreign affairs service with the federal government in Washington, D.C., and overseas.

He has written articles on taxation and financial markets for newspapers nationwide including the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, USA Today, the San Jose Mercury News, and the San Diego Union.

He is a member of the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors, and the founder of two investment management companies.

During his years in government, Marotta served with the Department of State and the Agency for International Development. In 1968 he earned a Meritorious Honor Award for service during the Viet Cong offensive in the city of Saigon.